Mancera Bar, nestled at Calle Venustiano Carranza 49 in Mexico City's vibrant Centro Histórico, offers a delightful fusion of Mexican and Spanish cuisines in a charming, historic setting. Established in 1912, this cantina boasts a rich heritage, featuring the world's largest and oldest leaded glass window, as recognized by Hennessy Cognac, and an operational telephone booth from the same era. The ambiance is enhanced by vintage décor, including a collection of sports memorabilia like Hugo Sánchez's Real Madrid jersey and a boxing glove signed by Muhammad Ali.

???? Mancera Bar Menu Highlights

Mancera Bar's menu presents a delectable array of dishes that showcase the culinary traditions of Mexico and Spain. Each plate is thoughtfully prepared, offering a taste of authentic flavors in a welcoming atmosphere.

Mexican-American Favorites

Empanadas de pescado: These fish empanadas are a standout, praised for their delicate preparation and flavorful filling. They offer a delightful twist on a classic dish, making them a must-try for visitors.

Chilaquiles sin carne: A hearty vegetarian option, these chilaquiles are complemented by a generous serving of black beans, providing a satisfying and flavorful meal.

Grilled Specialties

Solomillo a la Mancera: Grilled to perfection, this sirloin steak is a testament to the kitchen's expertise in preparing meats with a rich, smoky flavor that enhances the dining experience.

Seafood Selections

Empanadas de pescado: Beyond their popularity, these fish empanadas are noted for their refined taste, comparable to those found in fine dining establishments.

Fresh Salads

Ensalada verde: Renowned for its freshness, this green salad features crisp lettuce and a flavorful dressing, offering a light and refreshing start to the meal.

Desserts

Flan: A classic Mexican dessert, the flan at Mancera Bar is celebrated for its smooth texture and balanced sweetness.

Tiras de manchego con membrillo: This unique dessert combines strips of Manchego cheese with quince paste, offering a delightful blend of savory and sweet flavors.

Drinks and Cocktails

Mancera Bar also boasts a well-curated selection of beverages, including an extensive cocktail menu. The bar is known for its creative concoctions, such as the "Bull Doña Pera," a signature drink that reflects the establishment's innovative approach to mixology. Whether you're in the mood for a classic cocktail or a unique creation, the bar's offerings are sure to satisfy.
